PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Pro Lipoic Acid provides only the natural “R” form of the antioxidant lipoic acid. Lipoic acid is a versatile antioxidant known for its ability to protect neurons from the free radicals and heavy metals that promote cognitive and neurodegenerative diseases. It also helps promote healthy blood glucose balance and can repair and prevent diabetic complications such as neuropathy.

(R)-alpha-lipoic acid improves energy production, protects the liver, and functions as a lead chelator. Additionally, this nutrient has been shown to mimic some of the effects of caloric restriction, protecting the mitochondria to help extend lifespan.

AOR ADVANTAGE

In 1999, AOR was the first company in the world to offer pure R(+) lipoic acid. AOR's pure R(+) lipoic acid delivers the most effective form of this valuable antioxidant without the negative actions of lipoic acid's S(-) form.
